

THE BAITBAZI COMPETITION

University of Sufism and Modern sciences, Bhitshah

Introduction: The Baitbazi competition, organized by Ms. Javeria Memon, brought together students from diverse academic backgrounds, including BBA, CsIT, Education, and English, in a vibrant showcase of poetic talent. The event featured M. Khalid Rajput as the judge, and the honorable Vice Chancellor of the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences delivered an inspiring speech focusing on Allama Iqbal's poetry.&

Competition Overview: The Baitbazi competition provided a platform for students to demonstrate their poetic skills and linguistic finesse. Participants from different departments engaged in spirited performances, reflecting the cultural diversity and literary enthusiasm within the university.E

Speech by the Vice Chancellor. The honorable Vice Chancellor's speech on Allama Iqbal's poetry added a profound dimensi on to the competition. Delivered with eloquence and passion, the speech captivated the audience and underscored the timeless relevance of Iqbal's verses in contemporary times.N

Judging Panel: M. Khalid Rajput, a distinguished figure in the literary community, served as the judge for the competition. His expertise ensured a fair and insightful evaluation of the participants' performances, contributing to the overall success and credibility of the event.

Results: The highlight of the Baitbazi competition was the announcement of the winner from the English department Afshan Emaan. This victory not only showcased the department's linguistic prowess but also highlighted the universality of poetic expression. Hafsa Abbasi from CSIT department secured the runner-up position, demonstrating their commendable poetic skills and contributing to the overall success of the event.E

Conclusion: The Baitbazi competition, organized under the guidance of Ms. Javeria Memon, was a resounding success, showcasing the literary talents of students from diverse academic disciplines. The event not only celebrated the rich tradition of Urdu poetry but also fostered a sense of unity and appreciation for cultural diversity within the university community.

