Bhitshah, August 4, 2025 — The air was filled with patriotic fervor at the Conference Hall of the University of Sufism and Modern Sciences Bhitshah today, where a Milli Nagma (patriotic song) competition was held at 11:00 AM. Organized by the Department of Business Administration under the directives of Vice Chancellor Prof. Dr. Arabella Bhutto, the event aimed to rekindle national pride and pay tribute to the valor and sacrifices of Pakistan's armed forces.

Students of the BBA program participated with unflinching enthusiasm, delivering stirring renditions of Milli Naghmas that echoed with devotion, unity, and love for the motherland. Each performance reflected the students' deep respect for the sacrifices made by Pakistan's national heroes and the unwavering spirit of the armed forces in defending the country.

"This event is a humble tribute to the guardians of our nation," he remarked. "The students, through their voices, are honouring the Bunyan-e-Marsous—our brave soldiers who stand like a solid wall in defense of Pakistan's sovereignty."

He further noted that instilling patriotic values among youth is crucial in the current era, and such events foster unity, resilience, and a sense of purpose among students. Dr. Ali also praised the Prof. Dr. Arabella Bhutto, the Vice Chancellor of the university for her vision for engaging students in activities that celebrate national identity while nurturing leadership and civic responsibility.

The audience, comprising students, faculty, and staff, was visibly moved by the emotional power of the performances. The hall resonated with applause and slogans of Pakistan Zindabad as performers concluded their songs with heartfelt salutes to the nation.
