

UNIVERSITY OF SUFISM AND MODERN SCIENCES
Bhitshah, Sindh, Pakistan
EXCELLENCE | INTEGRITY | LEADERSHIP
INTERNATIONAL MULTIDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE ON SUFISM AND MODERN SCIENCES
November 22-23, 2022

The University of Sufism and Modern Sciences (USMS) Bhitshah organized a conference titled as “International Multidisciplinary Conference on Sufism and Modern Sciences” on 22-23 November 2022.

The conference received a total of 154 papers from different parts of Pakistan. The conference committee accepted 93 papers for presentation in conference. 72 researchers have presented their research work in parallel session organized in USMS. 21 researchers presented their papers through ONLINE mode. Five international keynote speakers and ten national keynote speakers graced the conference by sharing their research work.

The conference turned out to be the big success. Prof. Dr. Fateh Muhammad Mari, Vice Chancellor, Sindh Agriculture University joined as a chief guest in inaugural ceremony of the conference. The Chief Guest admired the efforts of conference committee and extended special credit to Prof. Dr. Parveen Munshi, Vice Chancellor USMS for organizing the conference at par to the international standards in a small town like Bhitshah. The guest stressed upon the need to have sufism approach in conduct and pursuing of higher education. Prof. Dr. Parveen Munshi, Vice Chancellor USMS welcomed the guests of the conference and highlighted the significance of pursuing the modern knowledge through Sufism lenses.

A Roohani Shaam was staged at premises of shrine of Shah Abdul Latif Bhittai. Manthar Faqeer along with his team graced the event with soofi Kalam. The Roohani Shaam ended with poetry of different saints and sufees by Dr. Zulfiqar Ali and his team.

The second day of the conference started with name of Allah. Prof. Dr. Parveen Munch, Vice Chancellor, USMS welcomed the guest and shed light upon conference theme. The panel discussion was organized to shed light on topic “Sufism as Dimension to Seek Modern Knowledge”. A panel comprises of six field experts discussed and shared their scholarly insight on the topic. The panel comprised of Dr. Zahid Hussain Abro, Pro-Vice Chancellor, QUEST, Prof. Dr. Shujaat Mubarik, Dean College of Management Sciences, Institute of Business Management Karachi,

Director General Culture department Sindh, Mr. Munawar Mahesar was invited as a Chief Guest. He appreciated the idea of organizing conference on Sufism. In his talk he pointed out that the Sufism is way of seeking truth however, he also insisted upon making a balanced strike between Sufism and modern knowledge.

The conference ended with vote of thanks extended by Prof. Dr. Farman Ali Shah Registrar USMS.